

Google Meeting/Virtual Learning Safety Agreement

Your Privacy is Important to Us

Remote learning is the delivery of services using distance technology, typically computers or ipads, when the service provider and student are not in the same physical location. Service providers include teachers, paraeducators, occupational therapists, speech-language pathologists, physical therapists, special educators, and other interventionists.

By signing this form, I understand and agree with the following:

- Choose an appropriate location for class time on the Google Meet (not in bed, bathroom, etc)
- The caregiver and student will make sure that all people in view of the camera are dressed appropriately and follow the school dress code (It is the law).
- Be sure anything within your camera view is appropriate for classroom learning.
- At the beginning of each session and throughout the session, the caregiver or student will identify anyone present in the room and out of camera view.
- The student and others who may be present during the meeting will not record or take images of the meeting.
- The student and others who may be present during the meeting will use school appropriate language at all times.
- The device used during the meeting will remain at the academic area for the duration of the meeting. The device will not travel with the student to other rooms.

I agree to the rules listed on this virtual safety agreement.
